

SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Found Everything Until Returned to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I used to be sick every month with bearing down pains and headaches, and had a good deal of the time and very little appetite.
The pains were so bad that I used to sigh down on the floor and cry, because it hurt too much and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a few bottles of it and got some relief. I used it all the time and I feel better than I did before. I can now do all the work I want to do. I feel like a new woman.
— Mrs. F. W. LANE, New York.

"I will continue to suffer day after day out a sickly, half-dazed woman, missing three-fourths of my life when they can find a cure for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

GARY AND PERKINS INSPECT THE SHOPS FOR UNEMPLOYED

Members of Mayor's Committee Find Hundreds Busily at Work.

In the hope that additional publicity through the columns of the newspapers may induce charitably inclined citizens to contribute funds to the Mayor's Committee on Unemployment, three of the members of the committee, Judge Gary, George W.
Perkins and City Chamberlain Henry Bruere, to-day took a party of reporters on a tour of the emergency workshops established for the unemployed.
These workshops, which were organized by Miss Charlotte Boyd, a devoted worker in St. Bartholomew's Home, are located in donated premises and cost nothing for heat and light.
The largest of workshops is in a building owned by the Dock Department at Fifty-sixth Street and Twelfth Avenue, where 550 men are employed from 10 o'clock A. M. to 3 o'clock P. M. daily. They busy themselves making bandages, mending their own shoes and caning chairs. The committee pays them 10 cents an hour and their pay is handed to them every afternoon at the conclusion of their employment. In addition to 50 cents a day they are given a lunch.
The pay, while small, is a Godsend to the thousands who have taken advantage of the committee's plan. The feel of a 50-cent piece in a hand that has not touched actual money for days and weeks is comforting, indeed.

At No. 549 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth Street, a branch of the Y. M. C. A., the committee had one hundred and thirteen men at work to-day and sixty had been turned away because of lack of room. In the basement of St. Philip's Church, No. 212 West One Hundred and Thirty-fourth Street, 200 negroes were at work. Here there was prevalent an air almost of jollity. The volatile negro, under the influence of warmth, sunlight, some food and the prospect of half a dollar, was all smiles and animation, whereas the white men and women were generally sad and depressed.

In the Union Settlement, in East One Hundred and Fourth Street, between Second and Third Avenues, 100 men were at work in a diversity of ways. Two elderly men sewing rag carpets were asked by Mr. Bruere if they had a trade. They said they were plasterers and had been out of work all winter. "Doesn't the union look after you?"

asked Mr. Bruere.
"Well," said one of the men, "we can't pay any dues, so how can we expect the union to look after us?"

'HONEST NEUTRALITY,' DEMAND OF BARTHOLDT IN CONGRESS SPEECH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Declaring Germany is not getting justice from the United States, demanding "honest neutrality" and accusing American newspapers of printing "vile calumnies" upon the Fatherland, Representative Bartholdt asserted in the House to-day:
"Should the United States ever become embroiled in war again, the Germans of this country would rally to the American flag.

"We have not had the same consideration as our English brothers.
"Not a word has been said about English and Japanese violations of Chinese neutrality.
"Have we protested against Americans being dragged from neutral ships because they had German names?
Have we protested against England's policy to starve German non-combatants? Have we protested against England declaring the North Sea a war zone?
"Not but when Germany did the same thing we despatched a stiff note to Berlin, a milder one to England.
"The threat of an arms embargo would quickly bring the mistress of the seas to terms."

Omega Oil

FOR Neuralgia

Rub Omega Oil gently over the ailing nerves; then cover with flannel soaked in the Oil. Put a piece of dry flannel over this and bind tightly
